

Compilation Process:

1. Preprocessing: The preprocessor includes header files, removes comments, and processes #include statements.
2. Compilation: Converts code into assembly language/Machine code
3. Linking: The linker combines the object code with any necessary libraries to create the final executable

Flow Chart:

